

NVQ Assessor- Health and Social Care

Job Specifications:

This is a rewarding role that will allow you to draw on your experience of the Health and social care industry to provide professional assessment and support to learners in their workplaces, enabling them to realise their career potential.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Visiting learners in the workplace and assessing / tutoring them in their NVQ qualifications
- Maintaining documentation on learners' records
- Liaising with Learners, Verifiers and Management
- Creating learner portfolios to agreed standards

You should have excellent communication skills with experience in the health and social care industry and is looking to work with and support learners. It is essential that you are able to work independently, managing your own time and able to travel and visit different workplaces.

Candidates must be eligible to live and work in the UK.

Contact Us to apply for this position.